Dada Bhagwan Foundation • Adalaj

Vision

The vision that the absolutely revered spiritual Scientist, Gnani Purush Dada Bhagwan, had observed throughout His life is the very vision on which the entire organization operates.

જગત પરમ શાંતિને પામો
અને ફેરફાર મોક્ષને પામો

- દાદા ભગવાન.

“ May the world attain ultimate peace and may some attain liberation. ”

Values

The following values are to be observed by those who have received Self-realization through Dada Bhagwan's grace.

- PURITY
Nurture the intent of having 100% purity in all interactions, with regards to matters of sexuality, pride and money.
- KASHAY-FREE INTERACTIONS (KASHAY = anger, pride, deceit and greed)
Nurture the intent of having pure love and oneness with everyone in all interactions, thus not engaging in any intent of anger, pride, deceit or greed with anyone.
- NON-DOERSHIP
Nurture the intent to remain in the state as a non-doer and see others as a non-doer in all interactions, thus applying the intellect to look for positive, constructive and creative ways to solve situations.
- AADHINTA (Total surrender to the current living Gnani)
Nurture the intent to remain totally surrendered with utmost humility and oneness to the current living Gnani, Pujoyashri Deepakbhai, as well as the future genealogy of Gnani's who acquire the blessings of the current living Gnani.

Akram Vignan

A practical and 'shortcut' path to Self-realization

"True Knowledge is that which presents itself in all circumstances and provides solutions at all times." - Param Pujya Dadashri

There are two paths of achieving Self-realization :

- 1) The traditional 'Kramik' (step-by-step) path which helps to purify the ego by requiring people to renounce their family life & material possessions.
- 2) The non-traditional 'Akram' (step-less) path in which the ego is renounced and then the focus is on having the awareness of the Self to clear the wrong beliefs and understand things as they are, thus enabling one to maintain equanimity in all worldly interactions.

- Akram Vignan is a spiritual Science whereby the direct purification of the ego is achieved through the 'Gnan Vidhi'. 'Gnan Vidhi' is a scientific process of imparting Self-realization, made possible through spiritual powers of the Gnani Purush, Dada Bhagwan.
- There is nothing to be renounced on this path in the worldly sense.
- Akram Vignan focuses on understanding things as they are, thus enabling us to maintain equanimity in any situation throughout life.
- Param Puja Dada Bhagwan Himself attained spontaneous Self-realization in 1958 at the Surat railway station, as a result of His spiritual quest and efforts of infinite past lives.

(lovingly known as 'Dadashri' or 'Dada Bhagwan')

Business – Civil Contractor

Native Place – Bhadran, Gujarat

Spiritual enlightenment – 1958

"It takes only one pure individual to change the world."

- Param Puja Dadashri

The Rare Awakening

Nature unfolded a phenomenal spiritual experience within Him in just one hour at the Surat railway station, in June, 1958. He says that this was the result of His spiritual quest and efforts of infinite past lives.

The Spiritual Revelation

During that awakening, answers to all such puzzles of the universe like, 'Who am I? What is this world? How is the universe governed? What is karma? What is liberation? How can moksha be attained?' were revealed to Him.

Experience of the 'Self'

As a result, He experienced the absolute bliss of the Self. Not only this, but He also attained the spiritual powers to impart this experience to all seekers who came to Him.

Self-Realization Ceremony

Through the scientific process of Self-realization, known as the Gnan Vidhi, He was able to impart this Knowledge of the Self to others within just two hours.

Ripples of Happiness

Tens of thousands of individuals have received His blessings through the Gnan Vidhi and are experiencing a blissful life, free of worries & conflicts ever since.

Spiritual Masters

Pujya Niruma (1944 – 2006)

Full Name – Niruben Balubhai Amin

Education – MD (Gynecology)

Initial Years – Aurangabad, Maharashtra

Self-realization attained from Param Pujya Dadashri – 1968

“Niruben is a great instrument for the salvation of the world.”

– Param Pujya Dadashri

An Embodiment of Pure Love

Meeting the Gnani

Coming from an elite family in Aurangabad, Pujya Niruma was the only sister to 5 elder brothers in the family.

Whilst in her final year of MBBS, she learnt about Param Pujya Dadashri and obtained Gnan (Knowledge of the Self) from Him in 1968.

Life after Gnan

Impressed with the simplicity and effectiveness of Akram Vignan, she dedicated her life to serve not only Param Pujya Dadashri selflessly but also serve His mission of world salvation.

Besides round-the-clock seva of Param Pujya Dadashri, Pujya Niruma recorded Dadashri's satsangs, compiled and edited them and prepared numerous books related to Akram Vignan.

Spreading the 'Akram Vignan'

Prior to leaving His mortal body in 1988, Param Pujya Dadashri blessed Pujya Niruma with the spiritual powers to conduct satsangs and the Gnan Vidhi.

Pujya Niruma played a significant role in spreading Akram Vignan across the globe through live satsangs (Q&A Sessions), Gnan Vidhi and blessed tens of thousands of people with Gnan. Her satsangs are widely available in digital media form.

Niruma's Subtle Presence

A simple yet elegant memorial (Samadhi) of white marble stands at the site of her final rites in Simandhar City.

Pujya Niruma's subtle spiritual presence continues to give everyone inner strength in their daily spiritual endeavors.

Spiritual Masters

Pujya Deepakbhai (1953 – present)

Full Name – Deepakbhai Indulal Desai

Education – B.E (Mechanical), VJTI, Mumbai

Initial Years – Mumbai, Maharashtra

Self-realization attained from Param Pujya Dadashri – 1971

“Deepak will become the jewel that adorns
Lord Mahavir’s teachings.”

– Param Pujya Dadashri

The Hidden Jewel

- Destined to lead a life of spirituality, the quiet, gentle and soft-spoken Pujya Deepakbhai found worldly life shallow and unexciting ever since a young age.
- He met Param Pujya Dadashri in 1971, at the young age of 17, whilst in the first year of engineering and obtained Gnan (Knowledge of the Self) from Him. This awakening proved to be a major turning point in his life.

Devoted to the Cause

- Being awed by Param Pujya Dadashri's spiritual Science of liberation, he devoted his life to comprehend the finer nuances of this Science.
- He became Pujya Niruma's spiritual contemporary and assisted her in recording Param Pujya Dadashri's satsangs and compiling & editing them into books.

The Torch Bearer

- Param Pujya Dadashri blessed him with special spiritual powers to conduct satsangs and in 2003, Pujya Niruma blessed him to conduct the Gnan Vidhi.
- Currently he heads and guides the mission and travels worldwide to conduct satsangs and Gnan Vidhis. His satsangs are also available widely in different digital formats.
- He is a role model for young men and women to lead a life of celibacy and to serve in Dada's mission for world salvation.

One can experience Pujya Deepakbhai's divinity and get His blessings whenever He is available in Adalaj.

Trimandir

"A collection of the major religions in India is being established here and it is going to become the greatest place of pilgrimage."

– Param Pujya Dadashri

Trimandir – Where the major religions of India unite.

- Param Puja Dadashri noticed the conflicts arising between different religious paths. He believed that as long as there are differences in religion, there can never be peace in the world. With the intent to remove these differences, He conceived the idea of the Trimandir.
- The Trimandir houses the Lords of the three major Hindu religions in India, namely Jainism, Shaivism and Vaishnavism, along with Lord Balaji, Shri Saibaba and a host of other Gods & Goddesses.
- Worshipping the Lords from the various religions in one place will naturally eradicate all religious differences. This is the very beginning of spirituality.
- The biggest Trimandir is located at its headquarters in Adalaj, Gujarat.
- As of 2023, there are 18 Trimandirs in India so far and more on the way.

Satsang

"Satsang means to unite with the Sat (the Self),
It means to be in the company of the eternal or the Real truth."

- Param Puja Dadashri

- The satsangs on the Akram path are in question-and-answer format where anyone can ask questions for their own spiritual and personal progress.
- Satsangs are organized all over India and in various parts of the world. (viz. USA, Canada, UK, Europe, UAE, Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, Africa, etc.)
- Live translation of the Gujarati satsangs are available in many other languages. (viz. Hindi, English, German, Spanish, Portuguese, etc.)
- The satsangs are telecasted live on various TV channels, YouTube and other media.
- Thousands of seekers and Self-realized mahatmas take benefit of the satsangs held during major events & celebrations.
- Focused groups for children (BMHT, LMHT), youth (YMHT), married couples without children (DMHT), married couples with children (PMHT), married women (WMHT), married men (MMHT), senior citizens (SMHT) and celibate men and women (MBA) have been established. They get together regularly for satsangs where they get keys specific to their spiritual progress.
