Akram Vignan

The short cut Science to Self Realization / Liberation

There are two paths of achieving liberation. One is through the traditional ‘Kramik’ path and the other is through the non-traditional path of ‘Akram Vignan’. ‘Akram’ means without steps & Vignan means science. It is a short cut for achieving Self-realization.

In Akram Vignan, the direct purification of the ego is achieved by the spiritual powers of the Gnan (through the Gnan Vidhi - a scientific process of Self realization) and the attainment of Self happens. The impurities of the mind, speech and acts are thereafter addressed with natural ease by staying in equanimity (Sambhav) as they unfold by observing the Agnas (five principles) of the Gnan.

This path was naturally and spontaneously revealed to Param Pujya Dadashri by the grace of living Tirthankar, Lord Simandhar Swami in 1958. The current Atmagnani (Self realized soul), Pujya Deepakbhai continues to unravel this path to new spiritual aspirants.

This science focuses on gaining correct understanding, which in turn inevitably leads to right actions/conduct. Incredible as it may seem, it is indeed a reality today that hundreds of thousands of people across the globe, who have attained this path can attest to experiencing liberation whilst living their worldly lives.
About Dada Bhagwan

The self-enlightened Gnani Purush, Dadashri - fondly also addressed as "Dada Bhagwan".

His name was Ambalal Muljibhai Patel, a contractor by profession. On one evening in June 1958, whilst sitting on a bench of Surat railway station, nature unfolded a phenomenal spiritual world within him. At the end of this spontaneous internal enlightenment which lasted for around one hour, answers to all questions of spirituality were experienced viz. What is this world? How is the Universe governed? Who am I? Who are we all? What is karma? What is bondage? What is liberation (Moksha)? How can Moksha be attained? Countless such answers and explanations unfolded before him in this process.

This was the result of his spiritual seeking and efforts of many previous lives. Even more miraculous than what he experienced was the power bestowed in him, which enabled him to impart the same experience to all seekers who came to him. Through his divine original scientific experiment - Gnan Vidhi (a scientific process of self-realization), he imparted this knowledge to others within two hours. Thousands of spiritual seekers have already received his blessing through Gnan Vidhi and thousands continue to do so ever since. This science came to be known as "Akram Vignan".
Pujya Niruma

Atmagnani (self realized soul) Pujya Dr. Niruben Amin, lovingly referred to as ‘Niruma’ was born on December 2nd 1944 in Aurangabad, India to an affluent family.

She learnt about Param Pujya Dadashri and obtained Gnan Vidhi (a scientific process of self realization) from him whilst studying in the final year of MBBS in 1968. Pujya Niuma was so much impressed with the simplicity and effectiveness of Akram Vignan that she decided to dedicate her life in seva of Param Pujya Dadashri and assisting him in spreading this science amongst the masses.

Besides round the clock seva of Param Pujya Dadashri till he left his mortal body in 1988, Pujya Niruma recorded Param Pujya Dadashri’s satangs, then compiled, edited and prepared numerous books out of these in many languages. Prior to leaving his mortal body in 1988, Pujya Dadashri had blessed Pujya Niruma with divine powers to conduct satsangs and Gyan Vidhi.

Pujya Niruma travelled across all the continents and blessed tens of thousands of people with Gnan. The telecasting of her discourses on host of TV channels has made her an embodiment of love and compassion for every viewer!
Pujya Deepakbhai

Atmagnani (self realized soul) Pujya Deepakbhai was born on May 9, 1953 in Marbi, Gujarat.

Destined to lead a life of spirituality, this quiet, gentle and soft-spoken young man found the “worldly” life tedious and unexciting. His spiritual calling in life came upon meeting Pujya Dadashri and on receiving self-realization from him at the tender age of seventeen years, whilst studying engineering in Mumbai.

Being overwhelmed by Param Pujya Dadashri’s science of liberation, he devoted his life to comprehend the finer nuances of this science. He became Pujya Niruma’s spiritual contemporary and assisted her in recording, compiling and editing Param Pujya Dadashri’s satsangs/books.

Pujya Deepakbhai was blessed with divine powers by Param Pujya Dadashri & Pujya Niruma to conduct satsangs & Gyan Vidhi (a scientific process of self realization) respectively.

Pujya Deepakbhai travels across the length & breadth of the country and globe to conduct satsangs and Gyan Vidhi. His smile, a reflection of his inner bliss mesmerizes and enthralles public/TV viewers to no end.

Pujya Deepakbhai’s discourses are telecasted on host of TV channels.
